Preface

The Arizona Society Sons of the American Revolution has been fortunate to have our current historian, David A. Swanson of the Barry Goldwater Chapter. Compatriot Swanson has compiled two works: Early Days of the Arizona Society Sons of the American Revolution (2014) and Early Days of the Arizona Society Sons of the American Revolution Vol. II (2018), which have gone a long way into filling in the gaps in the formation of our Society at the end of the nineteenth century.

My interest in our early history was sparked at the AZSAR annual meeting on 13 Jun 2021 in celebration of our 125th anniversary of the original charter in 1896. In particular, the following articles from The Arizona Republican:

16 Jun 1896

ORGANIZATION OF THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

The members of the society of the Sons of the American Revolution in Arizona met [on June 13, 1896] at the residence of Mr. W. H. Robinson on North Third avenue for the purpose of completing the organization of the Arizona society by adopting a constitution and by-laws and electing officers to serve until February 22 next, the date of the annual meeting of the society. The meeting was called to order by Major H. F. Robinson, who had been appointed as organizer, who stated the objects of the society, and that there were now enough members in Arizona to form a full-fledged society. Constitution and by-laws were adopted and the election of officers with which, resulted as follows:

President, Major H. F. Robinson; Vice-President, Harry R. Barden; Secretary, W. H. Robinson; Treasurer, Capt. Lewis W. Coggins; Registrar, Omar Asa Turney; Historian, J. Ernest Walker; chaplain not elected. The board of managers to consist of the officers and J. F. Elwell, L. B. Christy and J. W. Benham.

After some other business was attended to refreshments were served and the first meeting of the Arizona society Sons of the American Revolution adjourned with the singing of "America."

22 Feb 1897

SONS OF THE REVOLUTION

Society Banquet and Election of Officers Last Night

The society of Sons of the American Revolution was organized last night. This society was appropriately instituted by an elaborate banquet at the Hotel Adams attended by persons eligible to membership in this society or its kindred patriotic societies. The banquet was pleasantly prolonged on till midnight so that with the succeeding toasts and the business of electing officers, the ball was dispensed with. The toasts with their responses were "Our Society," Mr. Rickenbaugh; "Washington, Dr. Scott Helm;

"Arizona," Captain P.P. Parker; "The Flag," W. H. Robinson; "The Ladies," Lewis Halsey, D.D.; "The Past year in Society," J. Ernest Walker; "Ode to the Statute of Liberty," J.W. Benham. Major H. F. Robinson was Toastmaster.

The officers chosen were Major H.F. Robinson, president; J.W. Benham, vice president; W.H. Robinson, secretary; L.W. Coggins, treasurer; J. Ernest Walker, registrar; Lewis Halsey, D.D., chaplain; Lloyd Christy, historian.

Those present at the meeting and banquet were: Major and Mrs. H.F. Robinson, Rev. Lewis Halsey, Miss. Allen Mann, Rev. H.A. Thompson, Captain P.P. Parker, A.P. Walbridge, Mr. and Mrs. R.E. Miner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elwell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conkey, J.W. Benham, Miss. Yeager, Mr. Rickenbaugh, Miss. Beeler, Dr. and Mrs. Scott Helm, W.H. Robinson, Miss. Marian Culver, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Christy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ernest Walker.

The question is raised, what happened to these early settlers of the Arizona Territory and founders of our Society? Who were their descendants? This work attempts to answer these questions. As with all genealogical research, this will remain a work in progress. As diligent as I've attempted to be, errors are possible. Source citations are very general, with the expectation that researchers can consult these databases for actual copies of records and/or indexes.

The newspaper story lists Omar as a local scientist and the Secretary of the Phoenix Public Library<sup>4</sup>.

Generation One

1. Harry Roswell<sup>1</sup> Barden was born 18 Apr 1870 at Peoria, Illinois and was the son of James Monroe and Cornilia (Mitchell) Barden<sup>6</sup>. He came to Phoenix sometime before 1896 when he appeared in the voter's registration records. That same year, he was elected as vice-president of the Arizona Sons of the American Revolution at the first meeting.

His time in Arizona was brief, as by the 1900 census, he was single and a lodger at Angels Camp, California and working as a bookkeeper<sup>9</sup>. It was Angels Camp that he met and married about 1900 to Luigia "Louise" Roller. Angels Camp was a mining town and Barden had numerous interests, including running a drug store, bookkeeper at the grocery, owner of the hotel, and postmaster of the town starting in 1930<sup>8</sup>.

He was quite the promoter as you can see in the photographs. His little town, Angels Camp, is in Calaveras County, California. Trading on the fame of a certain Mark Twain book, the first "official" frog jumping contest took place in Angels Camp in 1928. The city made plans to celebrate their newly paved streets. Planned festivities included a rodeo, races, and mining contests. The planners, Carl Mills and Harry Roswell Barden, decided to call the festivities the "Jumping Frog Jubilee" and to hold a frog jumping contest.

Harry died 23 Jun 1947 at Angels Camp, California and Louise died a few months later on 27 Nov 1947. They were both buried at Altaville Protestant Cemetery in Angels Camp<sup>7</sup>.

The summer of 1913, Marian and a Miss Northrup, both of the history department at Portland's Lincoln High School left for a extended trip to Europe.

Another sister, Miss Essae Culver, was the Louisiana State Librarian. ## Dr. and Mrs Scott Helm

Honorable Mention

1. Scott' Helm was born in 1862 in Lake County, Illinois, the son of Henry and Julia (Lathrop) Helm<sup>1</sup>. Scott graduated from Rush Medical College, Chicago in 1883<sup>2</sup>. He was living in Phoenix, Arizona at the time of his marriage on 12 Feb 1890 to Norma Jackson<sup>3</sup>. His wife Norma was born in Dec 1863 at Madison, Georgia and died on 30 Apr 1891<sup>4</sup>, just a year after their marriage.

Dr. Helm was married a 2nd time at Louisville, Kentucky, to Janie Beeler on 17 Nov 1892<sup>3</sup> and they made their home in Phoenix. By all accounts, Dr. Helm was a popular and well respected physitian. In the fall of 1897, Mrs. Helm's niece, Caroline "Carrie" Beeler of Louisville, came to spend the winter in Phoenix with the Helms. In February of 1897, Dr. and Mrs. Helm, along with their niece, attended the Sons of the American Revolution Banquet at the Adams Hotel in Phoenix on 22 Feb 1897.

There is no evidence that Dr. Helm ever joined the Arizona Society, but may well have intened to do so in the future. However, his future was short as he died on 8 Oct 1897 in a tragic accident. There is a very lengthy and graphically detailed obituary for Helm in the Arizona Republic<sup>6</sup>. In short, he was thrown from his horse and suffered massive trama to his head, dying at just 38-years of age.

His wife, Jane (Beeler) Helm would never remarry and died at the age of 93 on 16 Sep 1958. She was buried at Cave Hill Cemetery at Louisville, Kentucky. Jane's niece, Caroline E. Beeler was married to Paul Jarvis on 23 Nov 1904 at Lebanon, Kentucky<sup>7</sup>. Carrie was born in 1876 in Cincinnati, Ohio and died in 1971 in Sacramento, California.

Doctor Scott Helm was interred at Porter Cemetery in Phoenix, Arizona (plot B12) and he was memorialized with the large red granit obolic<sup>8</sup>. He had no children, but was survived by his brother Lynn and many nieces and nephews.
